DOMINICAN OFFERS A BASIS FOR TALKS

Balaguer Suggests O.A.S. Study of Elections

By PETER KIHSS

Balaguer Is Interviewed

SEES "BASIS FOR DISCUSSION": President Joaquin Balaguer of the Dominican Republic holding news conference Saturday in Ciudad Trujillo. Yesterday he said a formula for Organization of American States observers to "certify" electoral practices in the hemisphere might bring his country back into the inter-American family.

GENERAL IS SLAIN IN TRUJILLO PLOT

shooting of General Trujillo outside his capital Tuesday night said it had been accomplished by seven men who waylaid his car as he was en route to the home of his 94-year-old mother, Señora Julia Molina de Trujillo.

General Diaz was said to have masterminded the plot, but not to have participated in the shooting. It was noted that a brother, Modesto E. Diaz, lived near the home of Señora Molina de Trujillo.

Such details as were given, however, came from a secret investigation conducted by the Dominican Army, now under the command of Lieut. Gen. Rafael L. Trujillo Jr.

In a news conference, the younger Trujillo dismissed the idea that any political plot was involved. He said it was "impossible" that General Diaz had hoped to overthrow the Government, because he had no following in the armed forces.

"According to prisoners' statements," he said, General Diaz was motivated by a personal grudge because he had been forced to retire [illegible] on disciplinary grounds and partly because of suspected personal habits.

Long of Louisiana Calls for Action Over Cuba Plan

WASHINGTON, June 5 (UPI)—Senator Russell B. Long, Democrat of Louisiana, said today that President Kennedy should receive Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as a result of the abortive invasion of Cuba.

Senator Long also said that some changes should be made in the Central Intelligence Agency.

"I don't know whether I'd move Allen Dulles [the C.I.A. director]," he said. Senator Long said, but I'd sure shake some people up that thing over there because that fiasco was very poorly advised."

The Senator spoke on a Columbia Broadcasting System television program, "Youth Wants to Know."

He also said that President Kennedy should have consulted former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and General of the Army Douglas MacArthur before the invasion rather than afterward.

"They're both very competent [illegible] he said. "I'd put [illegible] as a cipher out of the head of the [illegible] for the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff."

marked Latin-American tour.

Mr. Stevenson, at an airport news conference said the "principal emphasis" of his talks with South American leaders would be the Kennedy Administration's economic and social programs for Latin America.

"But I will be glad to discuss any subjects, including Cuba, raised by the chiefs of state with whom I will meet," he added. Mr. Stevenson will visit all ten South American countries on an eighteen-day trip as President Kennedy's special envoy.

Asked by Venezuelan reporters if the United States planned to intervene in the Dominican Republic, where Generalissimo Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Molina, Dominican dictator, was assassinated last week, Mr. Stevenson replied:

"The United States will gladly cooperate with Venezuela to protect our citizens or to act against any outside intervention in the Dominican Republic, but our attitude will be taken within the collective framework of the Organization of American States."

Mr. Stevenson was received by Ambassador Teodoro Moscoso of the United States, with whom he drove tranquilly New York Idlewild Airport that brought street in which Mr. Stevenson was attacked.
